Name: _____ Date: _____

Abstract and Concrete Nouns

Grade 3 | Telling abstract nouns (ideas and feelings) from concrete nouns

A concrete noun names something you can see, hear, touch, taste or smell, like a pillow. An abstract noun names an idea, feeling or quality, like kindness.

Part A: Is each noun concrete (you can see or touch it) or abstract (an idea or feeling)? Write concrete or abstract.

1. pillow _____
2. kindness _____
3. bridge _____
4. courage _____
5. friendship _____
6. carrot _____
7. ladder _____
8. fear _____
9. blanket _____
10. honesty _____
11. freedom _____
12. puddle _____

Part B: Write the abstract noun in each sentence.

13. Mia showed patience while her brother tied his shoes. _____
14. Leo felt pride when he finished the puzzle. _____
15. Sam told the truth about the broken cup. _____
16. The puppy filled our house with joy. _____
17. The coach praised our teamwork on the field. _____
18. Kai felt hope as he waited at the starting line. _____

Abstract and Concrete Nouns - ANSWER KEY

Grade 3 | Telling abstract nouns (ideas and feelings) from concrete nouns

A concrete noun names something you can see, hear, touch, taste or smell, like a pillow. An abstract noun names an idea, feeling or quality, like kindness.

Part A: Is each noun concrete (you can see or touch it) or abstract (an idea or feeling)? Write concrete or abstract.

1. pillow concrete
2. kindness abstract
3. bridge concrete
4. courage abstract
5. friendship abstract
6. carrot concrete
7. ladder concrete
8. fear abstract
9. blanket concrete
10. honesty abstract
11. freedom abstract
12. puddle concrete

Part B: Write the abstract noun in each sentence.

13. Mia showed patience while her brother tied his shoes. patience
14. Leo felt pride when he finished the puzzle. pride
15. Sam told the truth about the broken cup. truth
16. The puppy filled our house with joy. joy
17. The coach praised our teamwork on the field. teamwork
18. Kai felt hope as he waited at the starting line. hope