Correlative Conjunctions - ANSWER KEY

Grade 5 | Using the pairs either/or, neither/nor, both/and and not only/but also

Correlative conjunctions work in pairs: either/or, neither/nor, both/and, not only/but also. Look at the second word of the pair in each sentence, then write the first word that goes with it.

1. Ben likes (either / neither / both) peas nor beans.

   Answer: neither

2. Rosa plays (either / neither / both) the piano and the drums.

   Answer: both

3. We can (either / neither / both) walk or ride our bikes.

   Answer: either

4. Eli (not only / neither / both) sings but also dances.

   Answer: not only

5. The door was (either / neither / both) locked nor open.

   Answer: neither

6. The park has (either / neither / both) a pond and a trail.

   Answer: both

7. You may have (either / neither / both) an apple or a pear.

   Answer: either

8. The trip was (not only / neither / both) fun but also cheap.

   Answer: not only

9. It was (either / neither / both) too hot nor too cold.

   Answer: neither

10. The test will be (either / neither / both) Monday or Tuesday.

    Answer: either

11. Ivy (not only / either / both) cleaned but also swept.

    Answer: not only

12. Kai is (either / neither / both) kind and funny.

    Answer: both