Interjections - ANSWER KEY

Grade 5 | Choosing the interjection that shows the feeling in a sentence

An interjection is a word that shows a strong feeling, like Wow or Oops. Read each sentence and think about the feeling. Write the interjection that fits best.

1. (Yum / Yikes / Hooray)! A spider just ran across my desk!

   Answer: Yikes

2. (Ouch / Hooray / Yum), I stubbed my toe on the chair!

   Answer: Ouch

3. (Wow / Yum / Ugh), I have to clean my messy room again.

   Answer: Ugh

4. (Oops / Phew / Hmm), I spilled my milk on the table.

   Answer: Oops

5. (Hooray / Hmm / Brr), which book should I read next?

   Answer: Hmm

6. (Oops / Brr / Hooray)! Our team won the big game!

   Answer: Hooray

7. (Phew / Hmm / Brr)! The wind outside is freezing cold.

   Answer: Brr

8. (Ugh / Wow / Shh)! Look at that huge rainbow!

   Answer: Wow

9. (Yum / Ugh / Oops), this soup tastes great!

   Answer: Yum

10. (Wow / Shh / Yikes), the baby is sleeping.

    Answer: Shh

11. (Oh no / Yum / Hooray), I left my lunch on the kitchen counter!

    Answer: Oh no

12. (Ouch / Wow / Phew), we made it to the bus just in time.

    Answer: Phew