Kinds of Sentences - ANSWER KEY

Grade 1 | Telling statements, questions, commands, and exclamations apart

A statement tells something. A question asks something. A command tells someone to do something. An exclamation shows a strong feeling.

Part A: What kind of sentence is it? Write statement, question, command, or exclamation.

1. Where did you put the glue? question
2. The bus stops at the corner. statement
3. Please close the door. command
4. Wow, that kite is so high! exclamation
5. Can we play outside today? question
6. Wash your hands before lunch. command
7. My brother has a red bike. statement
8. Oh no, the milk spilled! exclamation

Part B: Write the end mark in the box: a period (.), a question mark (?), or an exclamation point (!).

9. Do you like to paint [?]
10. Our class has a pet fish [.]
11. Look out, the ball is coming [!]
12. Who left this jacket here [?]
13. The library opens at nine [.]
14. Hooray, we won the game [!]