Name: _____ Date: _____

Kinds of Sentences

Grade 1 | Telling statements, questions, commands, and exclamations apart

A statement tells something. A question asks something. A command tells someone to do something. An exclamation shows a strong feeling.

Part A: What kind of sentence is it? Write statement, question, command, or exclamation.

1. Where did you put the glue? _____
2. The bus stops at the corner. _____
3. Please close the door. _____
4. Wow, that kite is so high! _____
5. Can we play outside today? _____
6. Wash your hands before lunch. _____
7. My brother has a red bike. _____
8. Oh no, the milk spilled! _____

Part B: Write the end mark in the box: a period (.), a question mark (?), or an exclamation point (!).

9. Do you like to paint ☐
10. Our class has a pet fish ☐
11. Look out, the ball is coming ☐
12. Who left this jacket here ☐
13. The library opens at nine ☐
14. Hooray, we won the game ☐