Perfect Verb Tenses - ANSWER KEY

Grade 5 | Identifying and forming the past perfect, present perfect, and future perfect tenses

Perfect tenses use has, have, had, or will have plus a past participle. Present perfect: has walked. Past perfect: had walked. Future perfect: will have walked.

Part A: Write the tense of the verb in bold: past perfect, present perfect, or future perfect.

1. By noon, we had eaten all the snacks. — past perfect
2. Maya has finished her science project. — present perfect
3. By next June, I will have learned to swim. — future perfect
4. The movie had started before we sat down. — past perfect
5. The twins have visited the museum twice. — present perfect
6. Leo had lost his key, so he knocked. — past perfect
7. Dad will have cooked dinner by six o'clock. — future perfect

Part B: Write the verb in the tense shown below the sentence.

8. Our team has won three games this season.
   (win, present perfect)
9. The bus had left when we got to the stop.
   (leave, past perfect)
10. By tonight, Sam will have read two chapters.
    (read, future perfect)
11. I have written a thank-you note to Grandma.
    (write, present perfect)
12. Before the storm, we had closed all the windows.
    (close, past perfect)
13. By July, the farmers will have planted the corn.
    (plant, future perfect)
14. My cousins have seen that movie before.
    (see, present perfect)