Pronouns and Reflexive Pronouns - ANSWER KEY

Grade 2 | Replacing nouns with pronouns and using reflexive pronouns

A pronoun takes the place of a noun. A reflexive pronoun, such as myself or ourselves, refers back to the subject of the sentence.

Part A: Write a pronoun (He, She, It, We, or They) that can take the place of the bold words.

1. My dad cooked pancakes for breakfast. He
2. Maria rides her bike to school. She
3. Ben and Leo played catch in the yard. They
4. The dog wagged its tail. It
5. My sister and I went to the park. We
6. Grandma reads me a story every night. She
7. The ball rolled down the hill. It
8. The cookies smell sweet. They

Part B: Write the reflexive pronoun that makes sense.

9. Ben made the sandwich (himself / herself). himself
10. I tied my shoes all by (myself / herself). myself
11. We cleaned our room (themselves / ourselves). ourselves
12. Mia taught (himself / herself) to whistle. herself
13. Did you make that kite (yourself / himself)? yourself
14. The kids built the fort (ourselves / themselves). themselves
15. The cat licked (itself / myself) clean. itself
