Relative Pronouns - ANSWER KEY

Grade 4 | Choosing who, whom, whose, which, or that to connect a describing part to a noun

Relative pronouns connect a describing part to a noun. Use who or whom for people, whose to show belonging, and which or that for things. Write the correct word.

1. Our coach, (who / which) is very kind, gave us a snack. who
2. The girl (who / which) won the race is my cousin. who
3. This is the shelf (that / who) holds my books. that
4. The boy (whose / whom) dog barks is in my class. whose
5. The teacher with (whom / who) we worked was patient. whom
6. I lost the pen (who / that) you gave me. that
7. The lake, (which / who) is very deep, freezes in winter. which
8. The doctor (who / which) helped me was friendly. who
9. The man (whose / who) car is blue lives next door. whose
10. Is that the author (whose / which) book we read? whose
11. She is the friend to (whom / which) I sent a letter. whom
12. My bike, (which / whose) is red, has a flat tire. which