

Name: _____

Date: _____

Complete Sentences, Fragments, and Run-Ons

Grade 4 | Telling complete sentences from fragments and run-on sentences

Write sentence, fragment, or run-on. A fragment is missing a subject, a verb, or a complete thought. A run-on joins two sentences without the right punctuation.

1. The library opens at nine on Saturdays. _____
2. Running down the hallway. _____
3. Because the bus was late. _____
4. The bell rang we ran outside to play. _____
5. Our class planted tomatoes in the spring. _____
6. The tall girl with the red backpack. _____
7. I like pizza my brother likes tacos. _____
8. After lunch, we played kickball. _____
9. My uncle fixed the flat tire on my bike. _____
10. It started to rain we went inside. _____
11. After the storm ended. _____
12. Owls hunt for food at night. _____
13. Dad made pancakes they were delicious. _____
14. Under the kitchen table. _____

Complete Sentences, Fragments, and Run-Ons - ANSWER KEY

Grade 4 | Telling complete sentences from fragments and run-on sentences

Write sentence, fragment, or run-on. A fragment is missing a subject, a verb, or a complete thought. A run-on joins two sentences without the right punctuation.

1. The library opens at nine on Saturdays.

sentence

2. Running down the hallway.

fragment

3. Because the bus was late.

fragment

4. The bell rang we ran outside to play.

run-on

5. Our class planted tomatoes in the spring.

sentence

6. The tall girl with the red backpack.

fragment

7. I like pizza my brother likes tacos.

run-on

8. After lunch, we played kickball.

sentence

9. My uncle fixed the flat tire on my bike.

sentence

10. It started to rain we went inside.

run-on

11. After the storm ended.

fragment

12. Owls hunt for food at night.

sentence

13. Dad made pancakes they were delicious.

run-on

14. Under the kitchen table.

fragment
